THINKING ABOUT A CAREER IN LAW?

Come see whether law school is for you! Learn how you can prepare now for a career in Law. Prominent Native American attorneys will discuss their backgrounds and careers, law school representatives will provide information about the law school admissions process and how to finance a legal education, current Indian law students will tell what law school is really like, and Indian law professors will provide guidance on how to prepare for law school!

This workshop which is funded by the Law School Admissions Council and co-hosted by Oklahoma City University School of Law, The University of Oklahoma College of Law, and The University of Tulsa College of Law, is designed to heighten awareness about the numerous benefits associated with DiscoverLaw.org registration. American Indian college and senior high school students are invited to attend. A limited number of scholarships are available to assist with travel costs for students outside easy driving distance of Tulsa.

Space is limited, and registration is on a first come/first serve basis. Please register in advance. Walk-ins are welcomed only as space permits. To register, please mail the form below to Lynn Miller, The University of Tulsa College of Law, 3120 East 4th Place, Tulsa, OK 74104; e-mail the information to lawadmissions@utulsa.edu or call 918.631.2406 by February 21, 2012.

Following the Native American Pre-Law Day, all attendees of the pre-law event are invited to tour the Enduring Spirit exhibit of Native American art and artifacts at Gilcrease Museum from 4:30p.m. – 5:30p.m. Shuttles will depart the TU campus at 4:00pm for those who wish to be transported to and from the museum.
