However, all costs of supervised visitation shall be paid by the respondent. Indian Child Welfare shall not be required to provide supervised visitation under this Ordinance. Visitation arrangements shall consider the respondent's overall lifestyle, especially as it pertains to alcohol, other chemical use and history of violence.
- (l) Any relief that the Court deems necessary to protect and provide for the safety of the petitioner and any designated family member or household or former household member.

(m) Respondent to:

A Protective Order authorized by this section shall include the name, sex, race, date of birth of the respondent, and the dates of issue and expiration of the protective order.

SECTION 307. DURATION OF ORDERS

(a) An Emergency Temporary Protective Order is effective until a full hearing with notice is conducted. Provided, if the respondent, after having been served, does not appear at the hearing, the emergency ex parte order shall remain in effect until the respondent is served with the permanent order. If the terms of the permanent order are the same as those in the emergency order, or are less restrictive, then it is not necessary to serve the defendant with the permanent order. Any emergency ex parte order entered shall state: "IF YOU FAIL TO APPEAR AT THE HEARING, A PERMANENT ORDER MAY BE ISSUED WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE TO YOU."

(b) Protective Orders and Modified Protective Orders issued after notice and hearing shall remain in effect for a period of four (4) years, or until further order of the Court, whichever comes first.

- (d) Transmit a copy of the order in the Kickapoo Tribal District Court registry of all Protective Orders.

SECTION 309. CUSTODY MATTERS TAKE PRECEDENT

In the event the petitioner requests relief or the Court enters a temporary order(s) concerning custody of a minor child(ren), such a hearing determining the above cited relief must be given precedence over all matters, including older matters of the same character, involving the same petitioner and respondent.

SECTION 310. CERTIFICATION OF PROTECTIVE ORDERS

All protective orders shall be certified as true and correct copies of the order(s) entered in the accompanying case.

SECTION 311. EFFECT OF ACTION BY PETITIONER OR RESPONDENT ON ORDER

If the Court orders respondent excluded from the residence of victim or orders respondent to stay away from victim, an invitation by the victim to visit or enter does not waive or nullify a Protective Order. Further, the victim cannot violate or be arrested for a violation of his/her own Protective Order.

SECTION 312. COURT RESPONSIBILITIES

The Court shall:

- (a) Not grant nor deny relief to the petitioner based on the employment, age, economic, educational, social, political, and/or mental and physical status of the petitioner or respondent.
- (b) Not deny a petitioner relief requested pursuant to this Ordinance because of a reasonable time lapse between an act of domestic abuse and the filing of the petition.
- (c) Inform the victim of domestic abuse about local services and advocacy available through the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma's program for victims of domestic abuse.

SECTION 313. MUTUAL ORDER FOR PROTECTION DISCOURAGED

A Protection Order entered against both the plaintiff and respondent shall not be enforceable against the plaintiff unless:

- (a) The respondent files a written pleading, such as a cross or counter complaint, seeking a protection order, and;

(b) The Court makes specific findings of harassment, stalking, assault, or domestic or family violence against both the plaintiff and respondent and determines that each party is entitled to such an order.

SECTION 314. COURT ORDERED OR REFERRED MEDIATION, MARRIAGE COUNSELING, OR RECONCILIATION OF DOMESTIC ABUSE CASES PROHIBITED

The Court shall not order parties into mediation or any type of counseling, alternative justice, restorative justice, or any other mediation type of situation that would put the petitioner in the position of dealing directly with the respondent for resolution of the issues contained in a petition for a protective order, even if the petitioner is given the option to refuse to participate in a mediation or similar process.

SECTION 315. OTHER COURT PROCEEDINGS. EFFECT OF OTHER PROCEEDINGS

(a) At any hearing in a proceeding to obtain or amend an order for protection, each party has a continuing duty to inform the Court of any other civil or criminal proceedings whether in civil, criminal, family, or juvenile Court, involving the parties in any jurisdiction.

(b) An order for protection may be sought in addition to other available civil or criminal proceedings. A petitioner is not barred from applying for an order for protection because of other Court proceedings. The Court shall not delay granting relief because of other pending action between the parties. The Court shall not dismiss or refuse to grant an order for protection because of the possibility, pendency, and existence of other Court proceedings.

SECTION 316. OMISSION OF PETITIONER'S ADDRESS

(a) A petitioner may omit their home address from all court papers. If the petitioner does so, the Court may inquire in camera to determine information sufficient to establish jurisdiction over the petition, but shall thereafter maintain the address of petitioner under sealed record, not to be accessible unless authorized by the Court. The petitioner must provide the Court with information to allow proper service to be attainable under the Civil Procedure Ordinance of the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma.

(b) Service upon petitioners with sealed address shall be made by service upon the Court in lieu of petitioner. Any computation of time in which to answer or reply by the petitioner after service by respondent pursuant to this section shall be enlarged by three days. Service shall otherwise comply with the Civil Procedure Ordinance.

SECTION 317. TRIBAL REGISTRY FOR ORDERS OF PROTECTION

(a) The District Court of the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma shall maintain a registry of all protective orders issued by the Kickapoo Tribal District Court. (b) The Court Clerk shall also provide the police and the program with any modifications, revocations, withdrawals, and/or expiration of protective orders.

SECTION 318. VACATING OF PROTECTIVE ORDERS

(a) A party who wishes to have a protective order vacated must move the Court for such an order.

(b) A Protective Order shall be vacated only by Court Order.

(c) In determining whether or not to vacate a protection order, the Court shall consider the following:

1. Whether either or both of the parties have attended counseling, for how long and reports from the counseling program as to the attendance, success and any recommendations of the program regarding the respondent;
2. Whether the respondent has attended substance abuse counseling, if required by the order, and for how long and reports from the counseling program as to the attendance, success and any recommendations of the program regarding the respondent;
3. Whether the respondent has complied with the terms of the protective order or modified protective order;
4. Whether the circumstances have changed so as to remove the danger to the petitioner from the respondent; and
5. Any other factors the Court deems relevant.

(d) The Court clerk shall provide a copy of any subsequent order to all Law Enforcement Departments to whom a copy of the original protective order was delivered under Section 308 and 317.

(e) The Kickapoo Tribal Police Department shall enforce any protective order that has neither expired nor been vacated, regardless of the current status of the party's relationship.

SECTION 319. CIVIL PENALTIES FOR VIOLATING PROTECTIVE ORDER

In addition to any criminal penalties for failure to comply with the requirements of this Ordinance, except where otherwise stated, failure to comply with the provisions of this Ordinance shall subject the non-complying offender to a civil penalty of not more than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00), per incident, as assessed by the Court after notice and hearing. Each day wherein the offender fails to come into compliance shall be a separate violation. The Attorney General/Prosecutor shall be authorized to assist in enforcement of this section.

May require that ten percent (10%) of costs and restitution be provided to the Oklahoma Crime Victims Compensation.

SECTION 320. CIVIL SEIZURE OF PROPERTY USED IN FURTHERANCE OF VIOLATING A PROTECTIVE ORDER

(a) All property, used in violating a Protective Order or Modified Protective Order (whether permanent or temporary), or Emergency Protective Order issued, registered or valid under this title, which is:

1. Found in the possession, custody, or control of any person, for the purpose of assisting, furthering violation of this title or transporting the perpetrator, for the purpose of violating the provisions of this title, or with intent to avoid apprehension for violations hereunder, and

2. Any automobile, truck, conveyance, or other vehicle whatsoever used in violating this Ordinance, whether by or for transporting the respondent, harassment of the victim, or other purposes; and

3. All cash weapons, cell phones, computers, paraphernalia, mechanical, electronic or digital equipment or other tangible personal property incident to violating a Protective Order or Modified Protective Order (whether permanent or temporary), or Emergency Protective Order, found on or in the control of the perpetrator or any person assisting in knowing violation of this Ordinance, may be seized by any authorized Law Enforcement Officer, without process. The same shall be, from the time of such seizure, forfeited to the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma, and a proper proceeding filed to maintain such seizure and prosecute the forfeiture as herein provided.

(b) Any and all such vehicles and property seized pursuant to Section 320 (a) shall be listed and appraised by the officer making such seizure and the property turned over to the Police Department and a receipt made. The officer making the seizure shall promptly file a written report to the Court Clerk and Attorney General/Prosecutor, showing the name of the officer making the seizure, the place where and the person from whom the property was seized, and an inventory and appraisal thereof, at the estimated usual and ordinary retail price of such articles received, to the best of the officer's knowledge.

1. Unless the seized property is being held as evidence for an ongoing civil or criminal action, the Attorney General/Prosecutor shall within thirty (30) days of seizure file in the District Court forfeiture proceedings in the name of the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma, as plaintiff, and in the name of the owner or person in possession, as defendant, if known, and if unknown in the name of the property seized. The Clerk of the Court shall issue summons to the owner or person in whose possession such property was found, directing the owner or person to answer within ten (10) days.

A. If by a preponderance of the evidence the property is found to have been used in violation of or assisting in violating this Ordinance, the property shall be declared forfeited by the Court and ordered sold.

B. If the property is shown to belong to a third party not involved in, nor assisting or aware of the property's use in violating this Ordinance and that the property will not likely be used in further violation of this Ordinance, the seized property shall be returned to the third party owner.

C. If the defendant or owner proves at the forfeiture hearing that the conduct giving rise to the seizure was justified, the seized property shall be returned to the owner.

Notice of sale shall be posted in three public places within the Tribe not less than ten (10) days before the date of sale.

(c) The seizure of property shall not be credited to the person from whom it was seized and shall not relieve the person from any prosecution, payment of any fines or penalties, or compliance with other court orders provided for under this title.

SECTION 321. CHILD CUSTODY

(a) In every case involving the custody of guardianship of or visitation with a child, the Court shall consider evidence of ongoing domestic abuse which is properly brought before it. If the occurrence of ongoing domestic abuse is established by clear and convincing evidence, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that it is not in the best interests of the child to have custody, guardianship or unsupervised visitation granted to the abusive person.

(b) In placing a child in the custody of an individual or in the custody of a private agency or institution, the Court shall if at all possible, select a person or an agency or institution governed by persons of the same religious faith as that of the parents of the child, or in case of a difference in religious faith of the parents, then of the religious faith of the child, or if the religious faith of the child is not ascertainable, then the faith of either of the parents. It shall be left to the discretion of the Judge to place children where their total needs will best be served. Under no circumstances shall a child be placed in the custody of an individual who is registered with any Tribal, State or Federal Sex Offender Registration. No individual that has been convicted of any crime involving domestic abuse or is married to or living with a person convicted of a crime involving domestic abuse shall receive custody unless that person is able to show by clear and convincing evidence that the child will not be at risk by such placement.

(c) Prior to placing a child in the custody of an individual, the Court shall inquire as to whether the individual has been previously convicted of a felony or a relevant misdemeanor or has any felony or relevant misdemeanor charges pending. Prior to the custody order being entered, the person shall respond by certified affidavit or through sworn testimony to the Court and shall provide a criminal history record obtained from the Oklahoma State Bureau Investigation (OSBI) upon payment of nineteen dollars ($19.00) and completion of the Request for Information form to the OSBI office. For purposes of this subsection, "relevant misdemeanor" may include, but shall not be limited to, assault battery, alcohol or drug-related offenses, crimes involving domestic abuse and other offenses deemed relevant by the Court.

SECTION 322. COURT ORDERED COUNSELING FOR PERPETRATORS

(a) In addition to the other sentencing powers of the Court, in the case of person convicted of any crime related to domestic abuse, as defined in Section 103 of this Ordinance, the Court may require the respondent to undergo the treatment or participate in the counseling services necessary to bring about the cessation of domestic abuse against the victim. The defendant may be required to pay all or part of the cost of the treatment or counseling services; or

(b) In addition to the other sentencing powers of the Court, the Court in the case of a sex offender, shall require the person to participate in a treatment program designed specifically for the treatment of sex offenders, if available. The treatment program must be approved by the Probation Officer who has supervisory authority over the defendant if the defendant is placed on probation, or the Court, if the court retains supervisory authority over the defendant. Such treatment shall be at the expense of the defendant based on the defendant's ability to pay.

SECTION 323. EXPERT TESTIMONY IN CASES OF DOMESTIC ABUSE

In an action in a Tribal Court case, if a party offers evidence of domestic abuse, testimony of an expert witness concerning the effects of such domestic abuse on the beliefs, behavior and perception of the person being abused shall be admissible as evidence.

CHAPTER FOUR FULL FAITH AND CREDIT

SECTION 400. FULL FAITH AND CREDIT FOR VALID FOREIGN PROTECTION ORDER

Any valid protection order issued by a Court of another tribe, state, or territory shall be accorded full faith and credit by the Courts and Law Enforcement authorities of the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma and enforced as if it were issued by the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma.

SECTION 401. VALID FOREIGN PROTECTION ORDER

(a) Jurisdiction of issuing Court. A protection order issued by a state, tribal or territorial Court shall be deemed valid if the issuing Court had jurisdiction over the parties and matter under the law of the tribe, state, or territory. There shall be a presumption in favor of validity where an order appears authentic on its face.

(b) Notice and hearing by Court. A defendant must have been given reasonable notice and the opportunity to be heard before the order of the foreign tribe, state, or territory was issued. Provided, in the case of ex parte orders, notice and opportunity to be heard was given as soon as possible after the order was issued, consistent with due process.

(c) Defense. Failure to provide reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard shall be an affirmative defense to any charge or process filed seeking enforcement of a foreign protection order.

SECTION 402. EXCLUSION FROM FULL FAITH AND CREDIT

A protection order from a foreign jurisdiction entered against both the plaintiff and defendant shall not be enforceable against the plaintiff unless:

(a) The defendant filed a written pleading, such as a cross or counter complaint, seeking a protection order, and;

(b) The issuing Court made specific findings of violence, threats of violence, harassment, domestic or family violence against both the plaintiff and defendant and determined that each party was entitled to such an order.

SECTION 404. LAW ENFORCEMENT IMMUNITY

A Law Enforcement Officer may rely upon a copy of any foreign protection order which has been provided to the officer by any source and may also rely upon the statement of any person protected by a foreign order that the order remains in effect. A Law Enforcement Officer acting in good faith shall be immune from civil and criminal liability in any action arising in connection with a Court's finding that the foreign order was not enforceable.

CHAPTER FIVE CRIMINAL PROCEDURES

SECTION 500. PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION

(a) Except as otherwise provided by this section any person who has been served with an ex parte or final protective order and is in violation of such protective order, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00), or by a term of imprisonment in the Tribal jail of not more than one (1) year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) Any person who after a previous conviction of a violation of a protective order is convicted of a second or subsequent offense pursuant to the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a term of imprisonment in the Tribal jail of not less than ten (10) days and not more than one (1) year. In addition, to the term of imprisonment, the person may be punished by a fine of not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), and not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00).

(c) 1. Any person who has been served with an ex parte or final protective order who violates said protective order and without justifiable excuse causes physical injury or physical impairment to the plaintiff or to any other person named in said protective order shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a term of imprisonment in the Tribal jail for no less than twenty (20) days nor more than one (1) year. In addition, to the term of imprisonment, the person may be punished by a fine not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).

2. In determining the term of imprisonment required by this section, the jury or sentencing Judge shall consider the degree of physical injury or physical impairment to the victim.
3. The provisions of this subsection shall not affect the applicability of Article 207, 208, 209, and 210, of the Kickapoo Law Enforcement Code.

(d) The minimum sentence of imprisonment issued pursuant to the provisions of subsections B and C of this section shall not be subject to statutory provisions for suspended sentences, deferred sentences or probation, provided the Court may subject any remaining penalty under the jurisdiction of the Court to the statutory provisions for suspended sentences, deferred sentences or probation.

(e) In addition, to any other penalty specified by this section, the Court may require a respondent to undergo treatment or participate in the counseling services necessary to bring about the cessation of domestic abuse against the victim or to bring about the cessation of stalking or harassment of the victim.

(f) When a minor child violates the provisions of any protective order, the Court may, if the violation is to be heard in juvenile proceeding, order the child to participate in counseling services necessary to bring about a cessation of domestic abuse against the victim and order community service hours to be performed in lieu of any fine or imprisonment authorized by this section.

SECTION 501. NOTICE OF RIGHTS TO VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC ABUSE

Upon the preliminary investigation of any crime involving domestic abuse, it shall be the duty of the first Police Officer who interviews the victim of the domestic abuse to inform the victim of the Kickapoo Domestic Abuse Program and to give notice to the victim of certain rights. The notice shall consist of handing such victim the following statement:

“As a victim of domestic abuse, you have certain rights.” These rights are as follows:

1. The right to request that charges be pressed against your assailant;
2. The right to request protection from any harm or threat of harm arising out of your cooperation with Law Enforcement and prosecution efforts as far as facilities are available and to be provided with information on the level of protection available; and
3. The right to be informed of financial assistance and other social services available as a result of being a victim, including information on how to apply for assistance and services; and,
4. The right to file a petition for a protective order or when the domestic abuse occurs when the Court is not open for business, to request for an emergency temporary ex parte protective order.

A Police Officer shall not discourage a victim of rape, forcible sodomy or domestic abuse from pressing charges against the assailant of the victim.

SECTION 502. MANDATORY DETENTION FOR INCIDENTS INVOLVING DOMESTIC ABUSE; DETERMINATION OF PRIMARY AGGRESSOR; REQUIRED REPORT

(a) A Law Enforcement Official shall have up to seventy-two (72) hours after the incident, without a warrant, to detain and charge a person if the official has probable cause to believe the person has committed a violation involving domestic abuse, whether the offense was committed in or out of the presence of the official.

(b) If a Law Enforcement Official receives complaints of domestic abuse from two or more opposing persons, the official shall evaluate each complaint separately to determine if one party was the primary aggressor. If the official determines that one person was the predominate aggressor, the official need not detain the second person if the second person is primarily the victim of domestic abuse.

(c) In determining whom to detain, the Law Enforcement Official is not required to base the decision on who hit whom first, but shall consider the dynamics of domestic abuse, self-defense actions and the definition of primary aggressor.

(d) A Law Enforcement Official shall not consider the use or abuse of alcohol by either party in making a determination as to whether or not domestic abuse has been committed.

(e) The employment, economic, educational, social, political, and/or the mental or physical status of the alleged perpetrator and/or victim shall not be considered in detention of the perpetrator.

(f) A Law Enforcement Official shall not threaten, suggest, or otherwise indicate the possible detention of all parties to discourage requests for intervention by any party.

SECTION 503. RESERVED

SECTION 504. REQUIRED REPORTS

(a) In addition to any other report required, a Law Enforcement Official who does not make a detention after investigating a complaint of domestic abuse or who detains two or more persons for a violation of the Domestic Violence Protection Ordinance must submit a written report setting forth the grounds for not detaining or, in instances where both parties are detained, describe how the determination was made that both parties acted primarily as aggressors and that neither party acted primarily in self-defense.

(b) All reports shall be forwarded to the Prosecutor's office within seventy-two (72) hours of domestic abuse incidents, regardless of whether or not a detainment was made.

SECTION 505. WARRANTLESS ARRESTS FOR CERTAIN VIOLATIONS OF PROTECTIVE ORDERS

(a) When a Law Enforcement Official has probable cause to believe that a defendant has violated a Protective Order, either;

1. Issued by the Kickapoo Tribal District Court; or
2. Valid under the Kickapoo Tribe's Domestic Violence Protection Ordinance regardless of issuing jurisdiction, and verifies the existence of the order, the official may, without a warrant, detain the apparent violator whether the violation was committed in or outside the presence of the official, if the orders are in accordance with the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma Domestic Violence Protection Ordinance.

(b) A copy of a protective order shall be prima facie evidence that such order is valid when such documentation is presented to a Law Enforcement Officer by the plaintiff, defendant, or another person on behalf of a person named in the order. Any Law Enforcement Officer may rely on such evidence to make an arrest for a violation of such order, if there is reason to believe the respondent has violated or is then acting in violation of the order without jurisdiction excuse. When a Law Enforcement Officer relies upon the evidence specified in this subsection, such officer and the employing agency shall be immune from liability for the arrest of the defendant if it is later proved that the evidence was false.

(c) Any person who knowingly and willfully presents any false or materially altered protective order to any Law Enforcement Officer to effect an arrest of any person shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a crime punishable by imprisonment in the tribal jail for a period not to exceed one (1) year, or by a fine not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or both, and shall, in addition, be liable for any civil damages to the defendant.

SECTION 506. AUTHORITY OF LAW ENFORCEMENT TO SEIZE WEAPONS

Incident to a detainment for a violation of the Domestic Violence Protection Ordinance, a Law Enforcement Official:

(a) Each official shall seize any weapon or instrument when such official has probable cause to believe such weapon or instrument has been used to commit an act of domestic abuse as defined by this Ordinance, provided an arrest is made, if possible, at the same time.

(b) After such seizure, the Attorney General/Prosecutor shall file a forfeiture action within ten (10) days of such seizure, or any weapon or instrument seized pursuant to this section shall be returned to the owner.

(c) The Attorney General/Prosecutor shall file a forfeiture action within twenty (20) days of determination by the Court of Domestic Violence, or any weapon or instrument seized pursuant to this section shall be returned to the owner.

(d) The seizure and forfeiture provisions as enacted by rules of the Tribal Court shall be followed for any seizure and forfeiture of property pursuant to this section. Provided, however, no weapon or instrument seized pursuant to this section or monies from the sale of any such seized weapon or instrument shall be turned over to the person from whom such property was seized if a forfeiture action has been filed within the time required by subsection B of this section, unless authorized by this section. Provided further the owner may prove at the forfeiture hearing that the conduct giving rise to the seizure was justified, and if the owner proves justification, the seized property shall be returned to the owner. Any proceeds gained from this seizure shall be placed in the Crime Victims Compensation Revolving Fund.

SECTION 507. CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

(a) There shall be a mandatory detainment period of not less than 8 hours prior to the release of any suspect arrested for any crime involving domestic abuse, including violation of an order for protection.

(b) In making a decision as to pretrial release of a person arrested for and/or charged with domestic abuse, or the amount of cash bond for such person, the Court shall review the facts of the arrest and determine whether the person is a threat to the victim or family members, to public safety, and is reasonably likely to appear in Court.

(c) Before releasing a person charged with domestic abuse or violation of an order for protection the Court may impose conditions to assure the safety of the victim and family, and to assure the defendant's appearance at subsequent Court proceedings including, but not limited to:

1. An order directing the defendant to vacate or stay away from the home of the victim and to stay away from any other location where the victim is likely to be;
2. An order enjoining the defendant from threatening to commit or committing acts of domestic abuse against the victim of other family or household members;
3. An order prohibiting the defendant from harassing or annoying, contacting, telephoning, e-mailing, text messaging or otherwise communicating through electronic or digital means with the protected person such as posting malicious, threatening, intimidating, personal or embarrassing materials regarding the victim to computer web-sites or blogs, or otherwise communicating directly or indirectly with the victim;
4. An order prohibiting the defendant from using or possessing a firearm or other weapon specified by the Court;
5. An order prohibiting the defendant from possession or consumption of alcohol or controlled substances;

6. Any other order required to protect the safety of the victim and to ensure the appearance of the defendant in Court.

(d) The Court shall issue a written order for condition of release and distribute copies to the defendant, to the police department, to the Domestic Abuse Program and to the victim. Failure to provide the defendant with a copy of the conditions of release does not invalidate the conditions if the person has notice through oral order or other means.
